

July kudos

The Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission awarded the National Canal Museum a $33,838 grant for general operating support. www.canals.org/

SITES announced the recipients of its most recent Smithsonian Community grants, funded by MetLife Foundation:

The Durham Museum received $2,500 to fund bus transportation for local students to view American Letterpress: The Art of Hatch Show Print. www.durhammuseum.org/

The Southern Museum of Civil War & Locomotive History received $5,000 to fund programming to incorporate hands-on experiences with living history demonstrations, cooperative programming with nearby Native American historic sites, and public viewings of the extended version of the exhibit film The Power of Words: Native Languages as Weapons of War. This programming will complement Native Words, Native Warriors.
www.southernmuseum.org

The Reginald F. Lewis Museum of Maryland African American History and Culture received $5,000 to fund three days of public programming related to 381 Days: The Montgomery Bus Boycott Story. www.africanamericanculture.org/